

OFFICE OF RESPONDENT
PARENTS' COUNSEL

ColoradoORPC.org

EVERY PARENT DESERVES A DEFENDER.

The Office of Respondent Parents' Counsel (ORPC) seeks justice and equity-focused attorneys in Colorado who will fight to preserve and protect families. ORPC is a national leader in supporting parents facing permanent separation from their children by the government.

At ORPC you will:

- Protect the fundamental right to parent. Fight for constitutional due process in dependency and neglect cases.
- Empower families and demand justice for parents facing permanent separation from their children.
- Strengthen your practice. Receive litigation and case support while gaining new knowledge and skills through education and training.

We're actively recruiting attorneys who are authentically connected to the families they represent through their lived experience and racial identity.

- ORPC offers a competitive rate of $100/hour on an independent contract basis. We accept applications on a rolling basis year-round.
- ORPC is looking for contractors both inside and outside the Denver metro area, often with more demand in rural and non-metropolitan jurisdictions.

AS A RPC, YOU'LL RISE UP, SPEAK OUT AND JOIN A STRONG COMMUNITY OF FAMILY DEFENDERS STATEWIDE. CONTRACT WITH ORPC TO ADVOCATE FOR CHANGE TODAY.

Contact Shawna Geiger at SGeiger@ColoradoORPC.org to apply.